Whatever you do, don’t respond to email messages asking for account numbers or passwords.

That’s right, Eileen. I never share my Social Security number, bank account or pin numbers.

Purdue will never ask for personal data to be sent via email.

For more information on phishing, go to www.purdue.edu/securepurdue