Your Choice—your favorite song or $3,000 or more
99 cents for your settling a lawsuit with the artist who created it.

Make the right choice.

Be informed.

99 cents for your your favorite song or $3,000 or more settling a lawsuit with the artist who created it.

Know Your Copyright

SecurePurdue University

http://www.purdue.edu/securepurdue/
What Is Copyrighted
Music, books, photographs, movies, artwork, poems, graphics, and websites

What the Copyright Law Says
Unauthorized uploading and downloading of copyrighted works amounts to copyright infringement—and, therefore, is a crime.

Copyright information:
- http://www.purdue.edu/securepurdue/copyright.cfm

Purdue University copyright policy:

Review the IT Resources’ acceptable use policy:
- http://www.purdue.edu/policies/pages/information_technology/v_4_1.html

What the Copyright Law Allows
You may make a copy of your original computer program or music for backup purposes only. If you sell the original or give it away, you must destroy your copy.

Why Should I Care
If you perform music, write or create art, you want it protected. Movie producers, musical artists, graphic designers, and writers want the same protection for their work.

Purdue University is an equal access/equal opportunity university.