

Move Admin/Lite UI to New UI

|                           |                                               |                                |                                          |                                         |                                              |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| Wiki Home | Grouper Release Announcements | Grouper Guides | Grouper Deployment Guide | Community Contributions | Internal Developer Resources |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|

1.

Move editing/viewing attribute assignments to new UI.

1. In the 'More actions' drop down for a group, folder, add options to edit/view the attribute assignments.