Technical Documentation Update

Rebecca had a productive meeting on documentation with Michael, Chris and Jim.

Her approach will be to start updating and improving organization for the documentation that is currently on the CManage wiki. Decisions about next steps after that will be made later. Michael noted that there are interesting problems to solve in deciding how to go about documenting the way various components of CManage fit together.

Michael suggested that keeping a "snapshot" of the current documentation would be useful. Rebecca will make her improvements on brand new wiki pages, such as:

<https://spaces.at.internet2.edu/display/CManage/How+to+run+CManage>

Later, the pages Rebecca creates could become the new main documentation pages, with the older pages becoming child pages.

Next Meeting: Friday, 5-Mar-2010 at 2 pm ET

Heather will not be available for this call.
